3:1 The saying is trustworthy: If anyone aspires to the office of overseer, he desires a noble task. 2 Therefore an overseer must be above reproach, the husband of one wife, sober-minded, self-controlled, respectable, hospitable, able to teach, 3 not a drunkard, not violent but gentle, not quarrelsome, not a lover of money. 4 He must manage his own household well, with all dignity keeping his children submissive, 5 for if someone does not know how to manage his own household, how will he care for God's church? 6 He must not be a recent convert, or he may become puffed up with conceit and fall into the condemnation of the devil. 7 Moreover, he must be well thought of by outsiders, so that he may not fall into disgrace, into a snare of the devil.

Ministry Spotlight > Children!

"Children are people, and they should have to reach to learn about things, to understand things, just as adults have to reach if they want to grow in mental stature. Life is composed of lights and shadows, and we would be untruthful, insincere, and saccharine if we tried to pretend there were no shadows. Most things are good, and they are the strongest things; but there are evil things too, and you are not doing a child a favor by trying to shield him from reality. The important thing is to teach a child that good can always triumph over evil."

-- Walt Disney

The Disney quote while not a thoroughly covenantal statement is a good primer to highlight the wondrous importance of children to both our personal lives and to the life of Jesus Church. There is light and dark, life and death, delight and despair — but over and against every circumstance there is Christ's gospel hope with its overwhelming power.

Please make note to pray this week for Helen our children's coordinator, for Tim, Joan, Jim, Beth, and Stephanie, who serve on children's committee. Offer thanks for the dozens of volunteers and pray personally where you can lend a hand! Most pressing of all pray for the children of our church to know and rest in Jesus.

Jesus said, "Let the little children come to me and do not hinder them, for to such belongs the kingdom of heaven."

-- Matthew 19:14
