Sermon

2 Timothy 4:1-5, Rev J Kyle Parker

1 I charge you in the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who is to judge the living and the dead, and by his appearing and his kingdom: 2 preach the word; be ready in season and out of season; reprove, rebuke, and exhort, with complete patience and teaching. 3 For the time is coming when people will not endure sound teaching, but having itching ears they will accumulate for themselves teachers to suit their own passions, 4 and will turn away from listening to the truth and wander off into myths. 5 As for you, always be sober-minded, endure suffering, do the work of an evangelist, fulfill your ministry.

1. Jesus' disciples must be pioneering in community

2. Jesus' disciples must be prepared in conversation.

3. Jesus' disciples must be principled in conflict.

"Worship serves the indispensable function of uniting us with "all the saints," living and dead. In fact one of the most important things that worship accomplishes is to remind us that we worship not merely as a congregation or a church, but as part of the church, the people of God."

— Marianne Meye Thompson

I'm looking for a world where love will no longer be extraordinary.
— Patch Adams

"The Bible never minimizes the harsh experiences of life in this terribly broken world, and in so doing, the Bible forces us out of our denial and toward humble honesty. In fact the Bible is so honest about suffering that it recounts stories that are so weird and dark that if they were a Netflix video you probably wouldn't watch it."
— Paul David Tripp

"The Devil is the author of confusion"
— Robert Burton

"If you genuinely believe that every human, no matter how wayward, is created in the image of God, it will change everything."
— John Dickson

"Joy is a choice. It is a commitment to rejoice in our relationship to Christ and our identity in him."
— David Chapman

New Song - Oh Give Thanks (Psalm 107)

Written by Wendell Kimbrough

We were wand'ring in the desert with our souls so starved and weak.
We were hungry for a homeland we did not know how to seek.
But we lifted up our voices to the only One who hears;
And the God of mercy came and brought us near.

We were locked out of the garden, and our backs bent down with pain.

In the shadow of death's darkness, we were slaves to sin and blame.
Then we cried out in our labor to the only One who hears,
And the God of mercy wiped away our tears.

Chorus:

Oh give thanks to the LORD for His love endures forever!
We were wandering and lost, and our Father brought us home,
To a safe dwelling place, to a feast of joy and laughter.
Oh give thanks to the LORD, for He is good!

We were fools in our rebellion, with our hunger strike of pride.
We were sick and growing closer to the death we should have died.
Then he heard of our condition, and he called us by our names;
And the God of glory took away our shame.

We were far out on the ocean, making wealth and chasing dreams,
But the waves of great destruction brought us tremb'ling to our knees.

Then we cried like drunken sailors to the only One who hears,
And the God of comfort took away our fears.
