Reverence

"The will of God will not take us where the grace of God cannot sustain us."

"I've read the last page of the Bible, it's all going to turn out all right."

"Heavenly Father, we come before you today to ask your forgiveness and to seek your direction and guidance. We know Your Word says, 'Woe to those who call evil good,' but that is exactly what we have done. We have lost our spiritual equilibrium and reversed our values.

We have exploited the poor and called it the lottery. We have rewarded laziness and called it welfare. We have killed our unborn and called it choice. We have shot abortionists and called it justifiable. We have neglected to discipline our children and called it building self esteem. We have abused power and called it politics.

We have coveted our neighbor's possessions and called it ambition.

We have polluted the air with profanity and pornography and called it freedom of expression.

We have ridiculed the time-honored values of our forefathers and called it enlightenment. Search us, Oh God, and know our hearts today; cleanse us from every sin and set us free. Amen!"

"God has given us two hands--one to receive with and the other to give with. We are not cisterns made for hoarding; we are channels made for sharing."

"Reading God's Word and meditating on its truth will have a purifying effect upon your mind and heart, and will be demonstrated in your life. Let nothing take the place of this daily privilege."

"I have never known anyone to accept Christ's redemption and later regret it."

— Billy Graham

Sermon

Acts 13:38 - 52, Rev J Kyle Parker

38 Let it be known to you therefore, brothers, that through this man forgiveness of sins is proclaimed to you, 39 and by him everyone who believes is freed from everything from which you could not be freed by the law of Moses. 40 Beware, therefore, lest what is said in the Prophets should come about: 41 "Look, you scoffers, be astounded and perish; for I am doing a work in your days, a work that you will not believe, even if one tells it to you." 42 As they went out, the people begged that these things might be told them the next Sabbath. 43 And after the meeting of the synagogue broke up, many Jews and devout converts to Judaism followed Paul and Barnabas, who, as they spoke with them, urged them to continue in the grace of God. 44 The next Sabbath almost the whole city gathered to hear the word of the Lord. 45 But when the Jews saw the crowds, they were filled with jealousy and began to contradict what was spoken by Paul, reviling him. 46 And Paul and Barnabas spoke out boldly, saying, "It was necessary that the word of God be spoken first to you. Since you thrust it aside and judge yourselves unworthy of eternal life, behold, we are turning to the Gentiles. 47 For so the Lord has commanded us, saying, "I have made you a light for the Gentiles, that you may bring salvation to the ends of the earth." 48 And when the Gentiles heard this, they began rejoicing and glorifying the word of the Lord, and as many as were appointed to eternal life believed. 49 And the word of the Lord was spreading throughout the whole region. 50 But the Jews incited the devout women of high standing and the leading men of the city, stirred up persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and drove them out of their district. 51 But they shook off the dust from their feet against them and went to Iconium. 52 And the disciples were filled with joy and with the Holy Spirit.

1. The work of God is unbelievably effective.
2. The work of God is unearned through effort
3. The work of God is undeniably engaging.

Purpose Statement

Coram Deo signifies "life in the presence of God." A relationship possible only by Jesus Christ's rescuing humanity through his gracious sacrifice. Christ's grace is evidenced in our ability to love God and man with:

- Convinced minds
- Cleansed hearts
- Captivated souls
- Committed hands

The community of Coram Deo desires to extend Christ to Spokane and equip the saints to serve.

PETITION 2: REVERENCE (www.ministrytostate.edu)

We are a polarized nation and a polarized church regarding our government — what we must unite on and around is the responsibility to pray for our leaders.

Our Father and King of kings, Your Word informs us that there is only one Lord and Savior. There is one ruler of all. We acknowledge that you alone are sovereign over this world and universe. You are to receive our honor. You place all those in positions of authority in our nation and world. Help us to see what you see and give us the grace to accept, respect and honor President Trump.

You have granted our president his office for your glory. We pray that in every way he would acknowledge your presence as a gift. May he long for your Word and desire to think and live by it. We pray that he would daily experience your grace and mercy as he carries out his role as our head of state. Protect Vice President Mike Pence and all the members of the Trump administration from harm and deception. May they serve you and the United States of America well.

May we, your church, be faithful in praying regularly for the president and his administration. We ask all of these things in the name of our Lord and King, Jesus Christ.

We echo the same prayer for those serving in Congress, the Supreme Court, for Governor Inslee, Mayor Condon, our state's congress and courts, and Spokane's City Counsel. Amen.
