Sermon Points:

- I. The Person of Christ
- II. The Work of Christ
- III. The Power of Christ

“Why do we marry, why take friends and lovers? Why give ourselves to music, painting, chemistry or cooking? Out of simple delight in the resident goodness of creation, of course; but out of more than that, too. Half earth’s gorgeousness lies hidden in the glimpsed city it longs to become.”

— Robert Farrar Capon

“The gospel of salvation in Christ...is the good news that transforms the worst into the best, seen particularly at the cross, where humanity at its worst not only fails to defeat God but where God uses humanity’s attempt to do so as the centerpiece of our salvation. Christ has overcome the world.”

— Alan Strange

“All’s well that ends better.”

— J.R.R. Tolkien

“Are there any who are devout lovers of God? Let them enjoy this beautiful bright festival! Are there any who are grateful servants? Let them rejoice and enter into the joy of their LORD! Are there any weary with fasting? Let them now receive their wages.”

— John Chrysostom

Let him easter in us, be a dayspring to the dimness of us, be a crimson-cressed east,

More brightening her, rare-dear Britain, as his reign rolls,

Pride, rose, prince, hero of us, high-priest,

Our hearts’ charity’s hearth’s fire, our thoughts’ chivalry’s throng’s Lord.

— Gerard Manley Hopkins
